James Van Fossan is a contemporary realist painter known for his highly detailed oil paintings. He began his art career after leaving the corporate world in 2004 and has since gained significant recognition in the art world. His work has been featured in American Art Collector, International Artist Magazine, Southwest Art, and Western Art Collector.

One of his most notable works, Magnum Opus, won the Chairman's Choice Award in the 2012/2013 International Art Renewal Center Salon and Best of Show in the 2014 Collection Beaux-Arts Réaliste International Competition in Montreal. His paintings often focus on human emotion and dramatic compositions, and he is represented in the permanent collection of the European Museum of Modern Art in Barcelona.

You can explore his work at Van Fossan Gallery and Abend Gallery, or find pieces for sale on Artsy.
